

Dr R. K. Bajaj has done his M.Phil., Ph.D. (Chemistry) from University of Delhi. He has more than 34 years of experience with Bureau of Indian Standards. He has worked in various activities of BIS like Standards Formulation, Product Certification, Management Systems Certification, Training and International Relations. He has represented BIS in many national and international forum. He has also published number of technical papers in the national and international journals of repute.

He is presently Deputy Director General (Standardization) in BIS and is responsible for the Standards Formulation Activity in BIS.